

ADOPT DEFENDANT

The Conspiracy Tour is rolling across the country this summer, sparking solidarity everywhere for nine Midwestern activists facing politically motivated charges for their organizing.

What do they all have in common? They're all facing conspiracy charges for their political organizing. And they're all targets of repression chosen by the state to send us all a message...

Political organizing is conspiracy. Don't do it.

These defendants obviously didn't buy that line. Neither should you.

You should join the Conspiracy!

Adopt a defendant during trial! Flip this sheet over and check the deets on the defendants. Then let us know what you want to do to support them during trial. Host a benefit show? Dinner fundraiser? Rally? Speaking event? Go to court with them? Help their support committees during trial? It's your conspiracy...you decide!

Trial Dates

RNC 8: October 25, 2010 (going for a month or two)

Scott DeMuth: As early as September 13, 2010 (date subject to change)

Email us at midwestconspiracy@gmail.com to let us know how you're going to help your defendant!

More info: <http://conspiracytour.wordpress.com>

ADOPT DEFENDANT

The Conspiracy Tour is rolling across the country this summer, sparking solidarity everywhere for nine Midwestern activists facing politically motivated charges for their organizing.

What do they all have in common? They're all facing conspiracy charges for their political organizing. And they're all targets of repression chosen by the state to send us all a message...

Political organizing is conspiracy. Don't do it.

These defendants obviously didn't buy that line. Neither should you.

You should join the Conspiracy!

Adopt a defendant during trial! Flip this sheet over and check the deets on the defendants. Then let us know what you want to do to support them during trial. Host a benefit show? Dinner fundraiser? Rally? Speaking event? Go to court with them? Help their support committees during trial? It's your conspiracy...you decide!

Trial Dates

RNC 8: October 25, 2010 (going for a month or two)

Scott DeMuth: As early as September 13, 2010 (date subject to change)

Email us at midwestconspiracy@gmail.com to let us know how you're going to help your defendant!

More info: <http://conspiracytour.wordpress.com>

The RNC 8--Erik Oseland, Eryn Trimmer, Garret Fitzgerald, Luce Guillén-Givins, Max Specktor, Monica Bicking, Nathanael Secor, and Rob Czernik--were preemptively arrested in a series of raids by heavily armed SWAT teams and other targeted arrests on the weekend before the Republican National Convention in 2008. The criminal complaints are based on the allegations of confidential reliable informants and an undercover Ramsey County Sheriff's deputy, who infiltrated the RNC Welcoming Committee and conducted surveillance on the activists for about a year. Ramsey County Attorney Susan Gaertner initially slapped them with "terrorism" enhancements in the first known use of Minnesota's version of the PATRIOT Act. After a successful pressure campaign against Gaertner's gubernatorial bid, she dismissed the terrorism enhancement charges. The 8 still face felony charges of conspiracy to commit riot in the 2nd degree and conspiracy to commit criminal damage to property in the 1st degree. Their joint trial will begin on October 25, 2010 and could last up to two months.

Scott DeMuth: davenportgrandjury.wordpress.com

In November 2009, Scott DeMuth and Carrie Feldman were subpoenaed to a federal grand jury in Iowa investigating a 2004 Animal Liberation Front raid at the University of Iowa. Though they had no information about the incident, they both refused to cooperate with the grand jury on principle and were jailed for civil contempt. Carrie was held for four months before being released because her testimony was no longer needed. Two days after being jailed, Scott was indicted for conspiracy under the Animal Enterprise Terrorism Act. He has been released with conditions pending trial and has been re-indicted twice in response to his attorneys' motions to dismiss. In March 2010, the Utah house of well-known animal rights activist and former political prisoner Peter Young was raided on a federal search warrant from Iowa. The raid happened only days before Carrie's release and lists Scott and others by name.

The RNC 8--Erik Oseland, Eryn Trimmer, Garret Fitzgerald, Luce Guillén-Givins, Max Specktor, Monica Bicking, Nathanael Secor, and Rob Czernik--were preemptively arrested in a series of raids by heavily armed SWAT teams and other targeted arrests on the weekend before the Republican National Convention in 2008. The criminal complaints are based on the allegations of confidential reliable informants and an undercover Ramsey County Sheriff's deputy, who infiltrated the RNC Welcoming Committee and conducted surveillance on the activists for about a year. Ramsey County Attorney Susan Gaertner initially slapped them with "terrorism" enhancements in the first known use of Minnesota's version of the PATRIOT Act. After a successful pressure campaign against Gaertner's gubernatorial bid, she dismissed the terrorism enhancement charges. The 8 still face felony charges of conspiracy to commit riot in the 2nd degree and conspiracy to commit criminal damage to property in the 1st degree. Their joint trial will begin on October 25, 2010 and could last up to two months.

Scott DeMuth: davenportgrandjury.wordpress.com

In November 2009, Scott DeMuth and Carrie Feldman were subpoenaed to a federal grand jury in Iowa investigating a 2004 Animal Liberation Front raid at the University of Iowa. Though they had no information about the incident, they both refused to cooperate with the grand jury on principle and were jailed for civil contempt. Carrie was held for four months before being released because her testimony was no longer needed. Two days after being jailed, Scott was indicted for conspiracy under the Animal Enterprise Terrorism Act. He has been released with conditions pending trial and has been re-indicted twice in response to his attorneys' motions to dismiss. In March 2010, the Utah house of well-known animal rights activist and former political prisoner Peter Young was raided on a federal search warrant from Iowa. The raid happened only days before Carrie's release and lists Scott and others by name.